

An aerial photograph of a residential street. The street is wide and paved, with several cars parked along the sides. On the left side, there are several houses with different colored roofs (blue, purple, grey). On the right side, there are more houses, including one with a prominent orange roof. In the foreground, there is a large, flat, unpaved area, possibly a construction site or a parking lot, with some equipment and materials scattered around. The text "歩道もせまくきけんがいっぱい!" is overlaid in the center of the image, and "西側玄関" is written in the bottom right corner.
